TOMORROW'S OUTLOOK

The GOP Leadership has announced the following schedule for Tuesday, November 3: The House will meet at 12:00 p.m. for legislative business. The House is expected to begin consideration of legislation related to the Highway Trust Fund.

The Daily Quote

"...[House Speaker Paul] Ryan [R-WI] has stressed he will be the kind of leader who champions the causes most important to the majority of his members — and when the House last week voted to revive the Ex-Im Bank using a rare procedural maneuver circumventing leadership's blessing, just more than half of House Republicans joined with every House Democrat in voting 'yes.' So if Ryan is confronted with legislation containing Ex-Im Bank reauthorization language, allowing it to be reported out of the House would be consistent with his vision of a more open legislative process."
